

Please do not weaken the No Call List. I do not want banks calling me. There is enough telephone fraud and allowing banks to call would increase telephone fraud because one would never know if the call was authentic.